November Safety Message

This is a good example why you need to do an annual wood stove pipe cleaning. Blockage like this is a fire hazard.

If you are installing a fireplace, WETT approved chimney installers are required for insurance approval. They can also provide professional chimney cleaning if you can't do it yourself. Google WETT inc.ca to find a list of certified technicians that can help you.

With the time change that occurred last weekend it is a good reminder to change the batteries in your Smoke detectors and Carbon Monoxide detectors. This will ensure they will last the winter and provide the safety your deserve.
